TO: Superintendent of Documents
United States Government Printing Office
Washington 25, D. C.

Acting as the duly appointed head of the ____________________________ Library, under the powers conferred upon me by that office, I hereby accept for the above mentioned Library the designation of that institution by the Hon. Jack Brooks __________________________, representative of the Second District from the state of Texas __________________________, to be a depository for United States Government publications.

In consideration of the privilege of selecting and receiving those series of United States Government publications made available to depository libraries by the Superintendent of Documents best suited to the needs of the patrons of this Library, it is hereby agreed that this Library and its staff will abide by the law governing depository libraries, and such regulations and instructions as have been or may be issued by the Superintendent of Documents in administering the law.

It is further agreed that reasonable care will be exercised in selecting publications to be furnished to this Library so as to prevent waste of Government funds appropriated for distribution of depository publications.

I also certify that the statements given on the attached sheets are true to the best of my knowledge.

January 31, 1957 julia Plummer Librarian
Date Signature of Head of Library Title

Countersigned:

Date Superintendent of Documents
STATEMENT TO ACCOMPANY ACCEPTANCE OF DESIGNATION AS A DEPOSITORY LIBRARY

1. What is the name of your library?

   Name Library, Lamar State College of Technology

   City Beaumont County Jefferson State Texas

2. What is the full name of your librarian? Julia Plummer

3. What is your proper mailing address for the receipt of publications?

   Library

   Lamar State College of Technology

   Beaumont, Texas

4. How is your library supported? State appropriation

5. Is your library free to the public? Yes, on a limited basis

6. During what hours is it open? Monday through Thursday from 7:45 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. AND Friday from 7:45 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (These hours will be lengthened next year.)

7. How many volumes does your library contain other than U. S. Government publications? 31,248

8. Is adequate space available for shelving publications you would receive as a depository? Yes, since we plan to select publications carefully.

9. Is this space readily accessible to patrons of your library? Yes.
10. Do you plan to classify and catalog depository publications with the rest of your collection, or do you plan to give them separate treatment?

Most of the publications received will be integrated with our collection though a few classes may receive separate treatment.

11. How many U. S. Government publications does your library contain at the present time?

750 items (estimate)

12. Are the Government documents contained in your library—

13. What class of Government literature is most consulted?

Geological

14. Upon the mailing list of what Government publishing offices does the name of your library now appear?

U. S. Office of Education

15. Do you accept the obligation to pay postage charges required for the mailing of Government publication to your library in accordance with your depository selections?

Yes.

Note: Title 39, Section 83 of the U. S. Code requires depositories to signify a willingness to pay the cost of transportation of publications authorized to be distributed to them. Bills for required postage are submitted to depositories periodically by this Office and are based on surveys of actual mailings. The amount charged varies at the present time from $20. to $105. a year, depending on the number and type of publications selected by the various libraries.